Join a Team That's as Ambitious as You Are

Believe, Achieve & Care. Support every pupil, whatever their background, to make real progress and achieve their full potential. Bring your talents to St George's School, part of Cidari Multi Academy Trust, and join a team that's as ambitious as you are.

At St George's, Blackpool, we provide high-quality education in a vibrant, traditional learning environment where students and staff are truly valued and supported. We are passionate about helping every student achieve their full potential within a caring, inclusive, and academic community.

High-achieving and oversubscribed, St George's is consistently the best school on the Fylde Coast and is nationally recognised for its exceptional performance. We are significantly above national averages in both progress and attainment, and we are proud to be in the top 1% of schools nationally for progress when compared with similar schools. Our unwavering dedication to excellence ensures that we are more than just a school – we are a place where students thrive, and everyone is empowered to achieve their best.

We have an exciting opportunity for an exceptional teacher to join us at St George's. As a member of our staff, you will play a pivotal role in laying the foundation for academic excellence, fostering a love of English, and ensuring our students make outstanding progress.

Our commitment to exemplary behaviour means that teaching here is disruption-free, enabling our teachers to focus entirely on delivering inspiring and effective lessons. With high expectations embedded throughout the school, we create a purposeful, stimulating environment where students feel motivated and supported to succeed.

As Blackpool and the Fylde Coast's best-performing school on the Progress 8 and 5+ English and Maths measure, our ambition drives everything we do: delivering a top-quality academic education while combining the heritage of traditional values with modern aspirations.

We are also dedicated to your professional growth. St George's offers first-rate training and development opportunities for all teaching staff, along with excellent career advancement prospects within the school and wider Cidari Multi Academy Trust.

Join us at St George's, where exceptional teaching meets exceptional results, and where every student and teacher is inspired to believe, achieve, and care
